

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

July 25, 2006

Mr. Bret Goss
President
First Call Flagging
Post Office Box 1103
Chehalis, Washington 98532

Dear Mr. Goss,

Thank you for sharing your concerns and innovative suggestions on remote controlled flagging machines.

California was built by the ingenuity and hard work of its people, and our great state continues to thrive because of their involvement and commitment.

I greatly appreciate receiving input from my fellow Californians. Taking the time to communicate your opinions and offer suggestions is essential to good citizenship and good government. Your suggestion will be reviewed and if further information is needed, my Office will contact you.

Again, thank you for taking the time to write. I value the comments of people like you who care about the future of California.

Sincerely,

Arnold Schwarzenegger
